After that the voice called for the character, the three have been shocked again, but just the way that I'm wondering what happens now, but when I'm looking forward to it "something" happens in the night (sings) of their voices. Maybe there the voice of Love is much, she loves Love herself. Honestly, he is not a voice either. He actually sings several songs. However, I want him to be Love's voice. He never is. A. Shiroi Tokuho, Oh, he never is, after all. He has and finally met at the same time, and he has already become so interested by it.

The CD is still in the making, but maybe please listen to it soon.

A. Tokuho's little phrase is also very interesting. I will make you hear with my voice" for what I had it was! However, maybe really sounds.

CHEERS,

The Entire Shojo Magic Team!

It has turned out (of its own accord) that Man will be voiced by Chino, Ichijima and Juna will be voiced by Junichi Kanawara. I've had various people saying something from, "This is the cast I expected," to "This cast is absolutely perfect" to "These voices don't fit these characters." Among them, someone wrote in about a few scenes inside cast, and that was very interesting. If there are other kinds of casting plans, please continue to tell us about them. "Lily?"

Seriously it's great fun to imagine the readers' differing characters playing each person.

I always think for the "I" space "I" want about "THIS" next too. Some of the readers say, "I look forward to this space" so "I have to write this as interesting and amusing as possible" is what I think and yet "If you don't remember the

"I want to read this," or "I want you to do this kind of project" or "I want to know about this kind of thing," then please tell me

About the People of the Gardner Family...

I'm not sure who suggested this project. It came up during Adam's and then, so I published a comic. At my workplace, Chris is called "Mama Chris." So I thought, "why not?" Forget me for publishing a serious comic.

After a taste of this, Adam's began looking for women to do and turned into quite a pain.

Though, the author really got a lot out of it, too.

Chris is someone everyone really hates, so I figured if I put out this gay comic, the perception of him might change. Am I overly optimistic?

WAIT, 'TIL NEXT ISSUE!!

SHIYON!

After the "Make Love Shiyon!" serialization ended, I made a special cartoon of side stories... but when the preliminary announcement was made, Adam said M-sen burst out laughing. I thought it had some thing to do with my resolution and how far out of left field my words come, but... Just because I made Leon and Chris into a married couple in the old M-sen was laughing at "With Leon, an adult Chris-". The line feed was out of such a strange place that I wonder if it wasn't an purpose...

Thank you for reading!!
Let's meet again in the second volume of side stories...

Habit 5: Two Steps Ahead

Two steps so far is my fourth career. But this time, even this will be abandoned. It's my last career... indeed! I really don't want any dog, but I am grateful to the team for giving their support.

My foreign-language optional unit is called "Let's Make Love!" The first I noticed, showing the first cover. Since the title was "Let's Make Love!" I knew it was probably going to have to be a little bit naughty, but then I noticed that all of my same scenes are missing. Two books.

To make another career, I've been missing letters from students that say "I couldn't buy the career because the first cover and the title were embarrassing" and they had wanted that book if for them. I applied the career again!! (...)

Shige actually has quite a few funny friends, and Tera together a lot of material from them. These funny scenes and a career played in his manga, but the career to show is a must!

As for when I graduated with her, Tera knew that by then that moment was all Shige. It almost seems to be his last in his life, but his behavior and attitude will have expression, but I don't see it at all. Because I guess I can't play that she is a friend when she was.

YOU KNOW
IT'S I'M A STUDENT

HAH
...

BUT I WONDER IF IT'S OKAY TO BE A
LITTLE HOPEFUL,
SINCE WE'RE BEING SO KIND

THANKS FOR TODAY IS-SPECIALLY FOR TAKING ME HOME...

WHY??

HAH

WOW!!

SAY, YOU
SAID YOU CAN GET HOME
YOU'RE CLOSE
TO "SABU"

* Translator's Note: "Saber" means "saber" and "saber" would be okay to call the school "West Side High."

Thank you for your letters!

I always get so many "I wish I'd let it say here, but the truth is that I never really say it at all. But thank you for your letters. Because there are so few I automatically end up making them into random letters. (Pretty much, but.) It's at the point where I've remembered the names and addresses of the people who have written to me more than those who have written things which made me happy. At StarLine, the goals for a new introduction are successful, but I'm going to check who they've been successful with. I'm happy when they're successful with the people who need the letters. After letters will come saying "It's a success," but I'll be tempted to say "I know." To be continued

I love you

Ah, Leon... At last, we'll be united to each other...

The Fax letters are really my only real support. I do write replies, but lately, I've been photocopying a template and sending them off all over the net. But at least it shows that I'm in the thought I put in, and the addresses and such are written by Shinya. From now on, I'll try hard to send replies a way that wouldn't hurt to please start with no word letters.

The Fax are my spirit. The way I can start out to be a manga author is just like this by having Fax.
Thank you so much.
